22ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

22^º DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Twenty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time The Eyes of a Child

I frequently see signs on churches inviting everyone to come. Often they advertise that they are a contemporary, casual church. One thing that concerns me is that they do not add “challenging” to that description. Some people try to teach that since Jesus is risen from the dead, we should also be able to live that way: Rejoicing, but never sorrowing. But if we preach resurrection without the cross, we are acting like Peter in the Gospel.

Peter had just proclaimed that Jesus was the Messiah, but he failed to understand that Jesus’ mission was not to bring wealth and glory to Israel. Jesus knew that being messiah required him to give his life for all people. In a sense, Peter was tempting Jesus to avoid the painful death and use his divine power to bring prosperity. Like Satan’s temptations in the desert, he wanted Jesus to take the easy way to glory.

Instead, Jesus challenges us to deny ourselves. Today this phrase is not very popular with those who say we should be free to satisfy all our desires, or with motivational speakers who say that everyone is able to achieve financial success and live a comfortable life. As long as we center our lives on our own pleasure and comfort, we are rejecting the cross. To deny oneself means to choose God’s will over our own. It means to be willing to suffer for being honest. It means giving God the first place in our lives. It means we get more joy from serving others than serving ourselves. This is what Paul is talking about in the second reading when he says to offer ourselves as a “living sacrifice.” Or as Jesus says, we lose our life for his sake, only to find it in loving and serving him.

That is one reason I like the image of God as father. Parents will lose much of their freedom—and much sleep—when they bring a child into the world. But they find a new joy in the eyes of that child. We are all called to lose our selfish lives and find the joy of living for Jesus. Tom Schmidt,

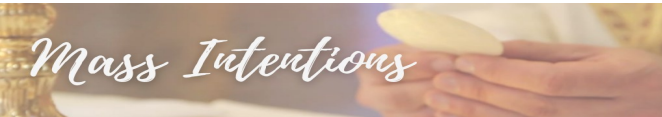

Vigésimo Segundo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario Los ojos de un niño

Con frecuencia veo letreros en las iglesias invitando a todos a venir. A menudo anuncian que son una iglesia contemporánea e informal. Una cosa que me preocupa es que no agregan “desafiante” a esa descripción. Algunas personas intentan enseñar que, dado que Jesús resucitó de entre los muertos, también deberíamos poder vivir de esa forma: gozándonos, pero nunca afligidos. Pero si predicamos la resurrección sin la cruz, estamos actuando como Pedro en el Evangelio.

Pedro acababa de proclamar que Jesús era el Mesías, pero no entendió que la misión de Jesús no era traer riqueza y gloria a Israel. Jesús sabía que ser mesías requería que diera la vida por todos. En cierto sentido, Pedro estaba tentado a Jesús para que evitara la dolorosa muerte y utilizara su poder divino para traer la prosperidad. Al igual que las tentaciones de Satanás en el desierto, quería que Jesús tomara el camino fácil hacia la gloria.

En cambio, Jesús nos pide negarnos a nosotros mismos. Hoy en día esta frase no es muy popular entre quienes dicen que debemos ser libres para satisfacer todos nuestros deseos, o entre los oradores motivadores que dicen que todo el mundo es capaz de alcanzar el éxito financiero y vivir una vida cómoda. Mientras centremos nuestras vidas en nuestro propio placer y comodidad, estamos rechazando la cruz. Negarse a sí mismo significa escoger la voluntad de Dios sobre la nuestra. Significa estar dispuesto a sufrir por ser honesto. Significa darle a Dios el primer lugar en nuestras vidas. Significa que obtengamos más alegría sirviendo a los demás que sirviéndonos a nosotros mismos. Pablo habla sobre esto en la segunda lectura cuando dice que nos ofrezcamos como “sacrificio vivo”. O como dice Jesús, perdemos nuestra vida por él, solo para encontrarla amándolo y sirviéndolo.

Es una de las razones por las cuales me gusta la imagen de Dios como padre. Los padres perderán gran parte de su libertad, y mucho sueño, cuando traen un hijo al mundo. Pero encuentran una nueva alegría en los ojos de ese niño. Todos estamos llamados a perder nuestras vidas egoístas y encontrar la alegría de vivir para Jesús. Tom Schmidt

PRAYER
HOPE

St. Jude, you witnessed the healing power of our Lord Jesus.
You saw His compassion
for the sick and dying.
You yourself touched the sick,
shared the sorrows of the mournful,
and encouraged the despairing.
You received this authority and healing power to work wonders,
to cure the incurable,
to make people whole.
We ask you to intercede with our brother, Jesus, to send His saving grace to heal
the sickness and suffering of St. Jude Parishioners, to uplift his/her despondent spirit,
and to instill hope in his/her heart.
Amen.

Discover More To Life

Many of us have asked ourselves the question, "is there more to life than this?" We are busy with family and friends, work and recreation, and attend church. But there still seems something is missing. An empty space. A void. A hunger. Alpha is a place to join with other people who are asking similar questions, exploring the meaning of life and faith. Join us for dinner, a short video and group discussion, and together discover that There IS More To Life.
