A Message from our Pastor

All Saint
Know Your Saints

The Gospel for today's feast is always Matthew's account of the Beatitudes. At first they seem to favor the meek, the humble, the merciful. But then Jesus ends with some tough ones, aimed at those who are persecuted, insulted, and slandered. While it may sound negative, Jesus is actually giving us encouragement. We should expect to be treated harshly by unbelievers. In fact, some Christians would say that if you haven't made any enemies, you might not be a true disciple. So how do all those meek, humble, and merciful folks make enemies?

Jesus isn't telling us to make enemies, but not to be afraid if we do. An important part of our faith is the imperative to spread it. Some people do that by sharing their faith during their lunch break. Others teach formation classes to prospective Christians. Some try to bring Christian values into the legal system by advocating for the rights of the poor, the unborn, or immigrants. Some become missionaries in countries that disapprove of Christianity.

So there are many ways to spread the faith, and many types of saints who are celebrated today. Some were rejected by their families, some by their friends, and others by local government or even religious leaders. Some even gave their lives for their faith. That's what the first reading means by "washed . . . in the blood of the Lamb" (Revelation 7:14).

Maybe today would be a good day to learn about your favorite saint. What made her special? How did he spread the faith? What persecution did they suffer? Perhaps you could talk about the saints with your children. What saint shares a name with your child? As St. John says in the second reading, we are all God's children (1 John 3:2). The world that did not know Jesus does not know us. As we get to know our favorite saints, their lives can inspire us to face persecution or ridicule for our faith—or at least give us the courage to talk about our faith, and maybe change someone else's life.

Un Mensaje de nuestro Sacerdote

Todos los Santos
Conocer a los santos

El Evangelio de la fiesta de hoy es siempre el relato de las Bienaventuranzas según san Mateo. Al principio, parecen favorecer a los mansos, a los humildes y a los misericordiosos. Pero luego Jesús concluye con algunas bienaventuranzas difíciles, dirigidas a quienes son perseguidos, insultados y calumniados. Aunque pueda sonar negativo, en realidad Jesús nos está animando. Debemos esperar ser tratados con dureza por los no creyentes. De hecho, algunos cristianos dirían que, si no te has ganado ningún enemigo, tal vez no seas un verdadero discípulo. Entonces, ¿cómo es que todas esas personas mansas, humildes y misericordiosas llegan a tener enemigos?

Jesús no nos dice que busquemos enemigos, sino que no temamos si los tenemos. Una parte importante de nuestra fe es el mandato de difundirla. Algunas personas lo hacen compartiendo su fe durante el almuerzo. Otras imparten clases de formación a futuros cristianos. Algunas intentan llevar los valores cristianos al sistema legal defendiendo los derechos de los pobres, de los no nacidos o de los inmigrantes. Algunas se convierten en misioneras en países que rechazan el cristianismo.

Así pues, existen muchas formas de difundir la fe y muchos tipos de santos a quienes celebramos hoy. Algunos fueron rechazados por sus familias, otros por sus amigos, y otros más por las autoridades locales o incluso por líderes religiosos. Algunos llegaron a dar la vida por su fe. Eso es lo que significa la primera lectura al hablar de haber sido "lavado...con la sangre del Cordero" (Apocalipsis 7, 14).

Quizás hoy sea un buen día para conocer más sobre tu santo favorito. ¿Qué lo hacía especial? ¿Cómo difundía la fe? ¿Qué persecuciones sufrió? Tal vez podrías hablar de los santos con tus hijos. ¿Qué santo comparte nombre con tu hijo? Como dice san Juan en la segunda lectura, todos somos hijos de Dios (1 Juan 3, 2). El mundo que no conoció a Jesús no nos conoce a nosotros. A medida que conocemos a nuestros santos favoritos, sus vidas pueden inspirarnos a afrontar la persecución o las burlas por nuestra fe, o al menos darnos el valor para hablar de ella y, tal vez, cambiar la vida de otra persona.

Saint Of The Week

SAINT MARTIN DE PORRES (1579-1639)
November 3

Martín was born in Peru, to an African mother and a Spanish father. Due to the racism of his time, his father abandoned them, and even so, being very poor himself, he cared for those poorer than him. At 12, he learned the trades of barbering and nursing, which he carried out with unmatched charity. He asked to be admitted to the lesser friars of the Dominican order but was not accepted because of the color of his skin. Nine years later, he was allowed to make his perpetual vows in the community. Martín held no hatred toward anyone, only love. Since he spent hours in front of the Blessed Sacrament caring for the sick inside the monastery, outside of it, and throughout Peru, people called him: 'Martín of Charity.' At his canonization, Pope John XXIII said that he 'exercised immense charity toward his brothers, a charity that was the fruit of his complete faith and humility. He loved his neighbor because he considered them true children of God and his brothers. He was canonized in 1962.

SAN MARTÍN DE PORRES (1579-1639)
3 de noviembre

Martín nació en Perú, de madre africana y padre español. Debido al racismo de su tiempo, su padre los abandonó y aun así, siendo muy pobre, cuidó de los más pobres que él. A los 12 años aprendió el oficio de barbero y enfermería, oficio que desempeñó con una caridad sin par. Pidió ser admitido con los frailes menores de la orden de los Dominicos pero no lo aceptaron debido al color de su piel. Nueve años después se le permitió hacer sus votos perpetuos en la comunidad. Martín no guardaba odio para nadie, sólo amor. Puesto que además de pasar horas y horas frente al Santísimo Sacramento cuidaba de los enfermos dentro del monasterio, fuera de él y en todo Perú, la gente le llamó: "Martín de la caridad". En su canonización el Papa Juan XXIII dijo de que se "ejercitaba inmensamente en la caridad para con sus hermanos, caridad que era fruto de su fe íntegra y de su humildad. Amaba a su prójimo porque los consideraba verdaderos hijos de Dios y hermanos suyos". Fue canonizado en 1962.
