A Message from our Pastor

Twenty-eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time Come to the Feast

Why would invited guests refuse to come to a wedding? Free food and drink, music and dancing—what's not to like? By this time, Jesus knew that many of the Jewish leaders would not accept the invitation to follow him. As we know, after the Resurrection the disciples began to spread the good news not only to other Jews, but to anyone who would listen.

One reason the leaders in Israel did not accept Jesus was his association with sinners. They did not understand that God calls sinners to repent and be forgiven. Ordinary people, who knew they were sinners, were attracted by the offer of forgiveness. Many of them repented and came to be baptized. As the parable says, they filled the banquet hall.

So what about the man in the parable who came in street clothes? The wedding garment was a symbol of the baptismal gown, the sign of new life in Christ. So this man symbolizes those who "come to the feast" without repenting of their sins.

We can be like that man sometimes. We come to church, arguing with our spouse on the way. We bring our prejudices, lies, anger, and selfishness—with no intention of doing anything about them. We come with the attitude that says, "I'm here, aren't I? That should be good enough." But it's not. By dying for our sins, Jesus calls us to come back to God. So repentance is not just a change of clothing, it is a change of heart. It is our ticket to the banquet, our way of saying, "I know I don't deserve this, but thanks for letting me share the feast."

Un Mensaje de nuestro Sacerdote

Vigésimo Octavo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario Ven a la fiesta

¿Por qué los invitados se negarían a asistir a una boda? Comida y bebida gratis, música y baile: ¿cómo no les va a gustar? En ese momento, Jesús sabía que muchos de los líderes judíos no aceptarían la invitación de seguirlo. Como sabemos, después de la Resurrección, los discípulos comenzaron a difundir la buena nueva no solo a otros judíos, sino a cualquiera que quisiera escuchar.

Una de las razones por las que los líderes de Israel no aceptaron a Jesús fue su asociación con los pecadores. No entendieron que Dios llama a los pecadores a arrepentirse y ser perdonados. La gente común, que sabía que era pecadora, se sintió atraída por la oferta del perdón. Muchos de ellos se arrepintieron y vinieron a ser bautizados. Como dice la parábola, llenaron el salón del banquete.

Entonces, ¿qué pasa con el hombre de la parábola que vino vestido de ropa común? El vestido de boda era un símbolo de la túnica bautismal, el signo de la vida nueva en Cristo. Entonces este hombre simboliza a aquellos que "vienen a la fiesta" sin arrepentirse de sus pecados.

A veces podemos ser como ese hombre. Llegamos a la iglesia, discutiendo con nuestro esposo en el camino. Traemos nuestros prejuicios, mentiras, ira y egoísmo, sin intenciones de hacer nada al respecto. Venimos con la actitud que dice: "Estoy aquí, ¿no? Eso debe ser suficiente." Pero no lo es. Al morir por nuestros pecados, Jesús nos llama a volver a Dios. Así que el arrepentimiento no es solo un cambio de ropa, es un cambio de corazón. Es nuestra entrada al banquete, nuestra forma de decir: "Entiendo que no merezco esto, pero gracias por dejarme compartir la fiesta".

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

OCTOBER 18, 2026

Celebrating 100 years of World Mission Sunday

World Mission Sunday was established by Pope Pius XI in 1926. This anniversary is an opportunity to celebrate with renewed missionary zeal. Last year, Pope Leo XIV appeared to us, "Please help me help missionaries everywhere." That's what World Mission Sunday is about: helping Pope Leo care for the 1,130 missionary dioceses and territories under his supervision.

Our prayers and support will be a great help in bringing the Gospel of God's love to everyone. The second collection we take up today helps extend the Church's evangelizing work to missionary areas where the Gospel is being proclaimed for the first time, as well as to places where the Church is too young, persecuted or poor to sustain herself. Thank you for responding to Pope Leo's renewed call to help him support missionaries to the ends of the earth!

HOPE

St. Jude, you witnessed the healing power of our Lord Jesus.
You saw His compassion
for the sick and dying.
You yourself touched the sick,
shared the sorrows of the mournful,
and encouraged the despairing.
You received this authority and healing power to work wonders,
to cure the incurable,
to make people whole.
We ask you to intercede with our brother, Jesus, to send His saving grace to heal
the sickness and suffering of St. Jude Parishioners, to uplift his/her despondent spirit,
and to instill hope in his/her heart.
Amen.

we strive to serve every individual that comes to our Pantry, the steady increase in families combined with the decrease in donations is making it a challenge to continue to support that trend. It is with a sense of urgency that we are asking for help either non-perishable

Invitation to the Wedding Feast

Imagine that you live in a great kingdom with a king and queen and many other great people. You hear that the king's son is going to get married and there will be a great wedding feast. All the lords and ladies and rich land owners are invited. On the day of the wedding the servants go out to call the guests to the wedding, but all those important people refuse to go! They say they are too busy with other things, and can't be bothered to go!

Now imagine that you are one of the children in a poor family that lives down a back street. Suddenly you hear people calling out that the king has invited your family to the feast! What excitement! Everybody puts on their best clothes and goes to the castle. In a little while the king comes in and you see him pointing to a man who isn't dressed neatly, and hasn't washed his face or brushed his hair. He sends the man out of the hall.

The king sent his servants to call all the people in the street to his son's wedding. Follow the road on the map from the castle's courtyard all the way to the farmland. The people in the houses next to the road you pass are invited to the wedding.

You can colour in the houses if you like.
Who was invited to the feast?

True or False: Who is Invited to the Wedding?

In today's Gospel reading, Jesus compares the kingdom of Heaven to a king giving a wedding feast for his son. What happened in the story? See if you know which of these are true statements and which are false:

1. The first time the servants went out to call those who were invited, all the guests came. True or false?
2. When the king sent out the second group of servants, some people didn't come, but went off to their farms and businesses. True or false?
3. Some people mistreated and even killed the servants. True or false?
4. The king decided that nobody else was worthy to come to his son's wedding. True or false?
5. The king decided to send his servants out into the streets to call everyone to come to the wedding. True or false?
6. When the servants called the people in the streets, they all came and filled the banquet hall. True or false?
7. When the king came in to look at his guests and found one that wasn't dressed for the wedding, he had him thrown out of the place. True or false?
